

FRIDAY 24 MAY 2024

STAGE ONE: SAFFRON WALDEN TO COLCHESTER

The Ford RideLondon Classique, one of the world's leading professional women's bike races, returns this year to Essex, Cambridgeshire and Hertfordshire on Friday 24 May.

The opening stage of the 2024 race will start in Saffron Walden and travel east across the north of the county before finishing in Colchester. The full route map is provided over the page.

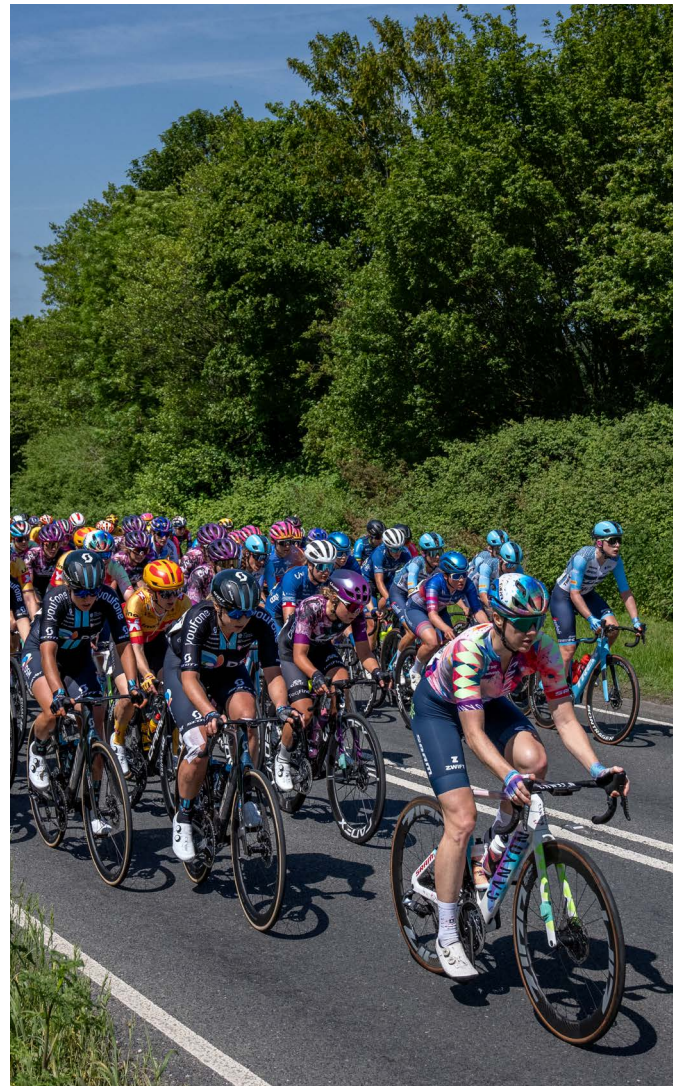

The race will feature the world's best female cyclists and be screened live on the BBC.

Plan ahead

Temporary road closures will be in place to ensure the safety of the event. Roads are closed shortly before the first riders come through and are reopened after the last riders and support vehicles have passed. This period of closure usually lasts around 30 minutes. Make sure you plan ahead by scanning the QR code below or visit ridelondon.co.uk/community-info
